NINE ARRESTED

Offering cash, candy and video games for sex with a seven and 11 year old landed 9 men in jail in Washington State last night.

One suspect who showed up to meet the girls, had a loaded 9mm handgun, knives, four throwing stars, a police baton, handcuffs and a fire department jacket in his car.

The two-week investigation is still on-going to determine if any children may have been exploited by those now arrested.

The 21-member team created the undercover sting in conjunction with the Kitsap County Sheriff's Office, Bremerton Police, FBI's child Exploitation Task Force, Homeland Security Investigations, the Department of Corrections and O.U.R.
